4 Plaintiffs,

5 - v. -

6 United States of America,

7 Defendant.

No. 15-cv-1923 RGK (Ex)

Honorable Charles F. Eick
United States Magistrate Judge

8 The Court, having read and considered the parties' joint stipulation for protective 9 order, and for the reasons stated in the joint stipulation and for good cause shown,

10 It is hereby ordered that the defendants are permitted to produce: (1) the 11 individual defendants' personal income tax returns; (2) information about the individual 12 defendants' income and assets; (3) Federal Bureau of Prisons reviews of the individual 13 defendants' job performance; and (4) Federal Bureau of Prisons logs of telephone calls 14 made by plaintiff James Davis Bennett while incarcerated in federal prison (hereinafter 15 referred to as Protected Material).

16 Protected Material will be redacted before disclosure to remove nonparties' 17 personal identifiers such as social security numbers, birth dates, FBI numbers, financial 18 account numbers, and home addresses.

19 The parties and their counsel shall use Protected Material for purposes of these 20 cases only, and not for any other purpose.

21 Protected Material shall be disclosed only to:

- 22 a. Counsel of record for the parties in these cases; and 23 b. The plaintiffs, provided that they execute and file with the Court the 24 attached agreement to be bound by protective order in the form attached hereto as 25 Exhibit A.

26 No party shall file documents, pleadings, transcripts, or other materials in these 27 cases containing or disclosing Protected Material without seeking Court approval to file 28 the Protected Material under seal under Local Rule 79-5.1.

1 At the end of these cases, including any appeal, all originals and duplicates (as 2 defined by Federal Rule of Evidence 1001) of Protected Material shall be returned to the 3 defendants by plaintiffs' counsel within 30 days of the termination of the cases. This 4 shall not include documents filed with the Court or documents containing plaintiffs' 5 counsel's notations, which plaintiffs' counsel shall destroy within 30 days of the 6 termination of the cases.

7 At the end of these cases, including any appeal, plaintiffs' counsel shall certify to 8 this Court that they have irretrievably destroyed all originals and duplicates (as defined 9 by Federal Rule of Evidence 1001) of Protected Material.

10 This stipulated protective order is not intended to compromise the rights of any 11 party to object to discovery under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or any other 12 authority; nor is it intended to alter any burden of proof regarding any assertion of 13 privilege. This stipulated protective order permits, but does not require, the defendants to 14 produce Protected Material.

15 Nothing in this stipulated protective order shall prohibit a party from seeking 16 further protection against disclosure of Protected Material.

17 Nothing in this stipulated protective order constitutes a waiver of any party's right 18 to seek a Court order permitting the future use and/or production of unredacted copies of 19 the Protected Material.

20 Nothing in this stipulated protective order constitutes a waiver of the defendants' 21 right to use, disclose, or disseminate the Protected Material in accordance with the 22 Privacy Act, any applicable statutes or regulations, or Federal Bureau of Prisons policies.

23 Neither the United States Department of Justice, including the Federal Bureau of 24 Prisons and the United States Attorney's Office, nor any of its officers, agents, 25 employees, or attorneys, shall bear any responsibility or liability for any disclosure of 26 any Protected Material obtained by the parties under this stipulated protective order, or 27 of any information contained in Protected Material.

1 This stipulated protective order does not constitute a ruling on whether any 2 particular document or category of information is properly discoverable or admissible 3 and does not constitute a ruling on any potential objection. Other than the documents and 4 information explicitly set forth herein, this stipulated protective order does not apply to 5 any information or documents subject to a claim of privilege or other basis of exclusion,
6 and this stipulated protective order shall not be precedent for adopting any procedure 7 with respect to the disclosure of any other information.
